Now, when people are ready to pay for a real comfort and luxury, they will not take bad or falsely beautiful, they will not return to a place where linen is not changed or where there are no iron and cable television. And this is the norm. The norm for hotels, mini-hotel, rooms, flats and apartments for rent. Mini hotel Oreanda is a small floor complexes, where residents of the eight rooms on the floor do not know about each other, where silence is as a necessary attribute of each room of the mini-hotel, as a fragrant linen, air conditioning and bright designs of curtains on the windows, capable of giving an atmosphere and mood of anyone staying in the walls of our mini-hotel.
